
Services

- Last Updated (19.07.2006)

CESGA offers to its users support in the use of the teleteaching equipments. These services include:

- Analysis of hardware and software requirements
- Design of technical solutions
- Development of course material
- Support during execution of the project
- Evaluation and testing
- Training on technical and pedagogical aspects.
- Interested users are normally asked to apply with a short description of their project.