
Research and Development Projects

- Last Updated ()

Consultancy, advising and training in institutions and companies devoted to research with research projects, technological development and innovation. These services are carried out through the following activities:

- Preparation and identification of new projects.
- Funding search.
- Partner search.
- Presentation of proposals.
- Management of IDT projects.